BRIGGS OF THE POULTRY YARD

Would Cast, Charmingly Remembered by Daytona High School Pupils.

APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE.

They given last night at the Daytona house by the High School a most delightful event, creditable to those young people who assumed the responsibility of the entertaining little party to the degree of perfection they attained in the presentation.

The play is to be repeated at Daytona, a pretty little neighbor on the south, where it is hoped they will be greeted by a good audience.

CHARLETON RECITAL.

From the laudable object for the erection of a monument to the memory of Joseph Jefferson, the Palmetto Club tonight should be a representative audience.

DIRECTING HAND IS ON THE GROUND.

Preparations For The Races Going Forward In The Most Satisfactory Manner.

SOME DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Everything connected with the great automobile race tournament of next week on the ocean beach is moving smoothly and satisfactorily toward making it the greatest event of its kind in the history of straightaway racing.

Ralph DePalma will be here tonight with the two Fists. They were shipped from New York on the Iroquois but the ship broke her propeller blade and was obliged to lay at Charleston for repairs.

At the Tent Show.

The Lyceum Comedy Company presented "How Wives Fool Their Husbands" to a packed house in the face of counter attractions last night.

CELERY BY CAR LOADS.

The first solid car of celery to leave Daytona this season was shipped Tuesday night by W. F. Holmes, Manager of the Daytona Truck & Fruit Growers' Association.

STORY STARTED BY SOME FOOL.

NEW YORK, March 20—Wall street was disturbed for awhile this morning by a rumor that Vice President James S. Sherman had dropped dead at his home in Utica of apoplexy.

THE COOPERS GET A LONG TERM.

Slayers Of Ex-Senator Carmack Sentenced To Penitentiary For Twenty Years.

WILL APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 20—Col. Duncan B. Cooper and his son, Robin Cooper, were today found guilty of murder in the second degree and were sentenced to twenty years in the State penitentiary for the murder of ex-Senator Edward W. Carmack.

LOCAL ITEMS

F. D. Miller, District Passenger Agent of the Illinois Central R'y., was a caller at the Daily News office today.

Mrs. W. W. Moore arrived from Bartow Friday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Hankins, during race week.

James Carnell, who was in the city over night attending the special convocation of Oriental Commandery No. 9, returned to Ormond by train this morning.

FIVE YEARS FOR J. SAMPSON.

Yeggman Who Figured In Blowing Daytona's Postoffice Gets Five Years

IN THE ATLANTA PENITENTIARY.

John Sampson, who with three pals blew the Daytona postoffice safe early last month securing thousands in money and stamps, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Locke of the United States District Court to five years in the Federal prison at Atlanta.

Sampson showed no emotion whatever and received his sentence with stoical indifference.

ENTIRE WEEK AT WILMANS.

The theatre-going public will enjoy a rare treat in the presence during the entire week of the Auto Races at Wilman's Opera House of the John B. Wilms Comedy Company with a selected cast of twenty high class actors.

ELKS DECIDE TO BUILD OPERA HOUSE.

Subject Fully Gone Over And Plans Matured At Last Night's Meeting.

$30,000.00 WILL BE THE COST.

That the B. P. O. E. will do to hitch to is abundantly proved by the active, aggressive manner in which this new organization takes hold of enterprises which make for the popularity and up-building of Daytona.

They have several sites in view, but it seems the consensus of opinion that an available site on Magnolia avenue will be the one chosen, and it is probable that today a deal will be consummated whereby this property will become the property of the Elks.

Among The Churches.

Sunday school 9:45; Judge Ibach, superintendent.
Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "Sympathy," Mrs. Mary Upham Currier, the famous composer of much of the music for Fannie Crosby's hymns.

MISS IDA WYNNE, A BELLE OF INAUGURAL BALL.

Miss Ida Wynne, daughter of the consular general to England, came to the United States expressly to attend the inaugural ball and was voted one of the most beautiful young women in attendance.

Trained Horse Exhibition.

The trained horse, "Hot-Stuff," which is being exhibited as a free attraction by the Lyceum Comedy Co. is attracting a great deal of attention and quite a number of the visitors in the city have taken snap-shot pictures of him in his various tricks.

Dog Snaps Child.

Little Colon McKenzie, 3-year-old child at the Troy House, was snapped in the face yesterday by a dog. The little fellow pulled the dog's tail, and this the canine resented. The child was little more than marked, and as the wounds were promptly cauterized no serious result is feared.

Hankins says:

Can't which is always nice and fresh is a treat for any one. Hankins and Nunnally's, you may swear by them. 80c.

DAYTONA BEACH, March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. James Haight, Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Haight and friends, Mr. Smith and daughter, Mrs. Smith, from Mr. Haight's home town, had a delightful boat trip to the Tomoka yesterday in Mr. Haight's launch.

Mr. Wright organized a Vermont party and enjoyed the river trip yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce, Mrs. Rockwell and Mr. Collins, who were here at Pinehurst two weeks ago from Lake Helen, where they were spending the winter, found on their return to Lake Helen that their trunks had been burned at the big fire, which unfortunately contained their return trip tickets as well as a greater part of their wearing apparel. Mrs. Freeman has just received a letter saying they will be over soon to finish out their visit at the beach.

A surprise party for Miss France Sparber tonight is pleasantly looked forward to by the young society set.

Mrs. P. Olds' health has been quite good this season and she enjoys her peninsula home very much. She was quite delighted yesterday while out driving with her son-in-law, Mr. Sheets, to note the many new cottages going up and the new lots being cleared at Seabreeze and Daytona Beach.

W. S. Olds left Wednesday on their return trip to Lansing after a month's visit with the mother.

The following arrivals are noted at the Seaside Inn: Dr. C. T. Baldwin, Derby, Conn.; E. W. Tomlinson, Passaic, N. J.; H. T. Cady and wife, Omaha, Neb. The usual dance and card party Wednesday evening.

What's in a Label.

There is a good deal of art in advertising, and it has to be adapted to the public it seeks to meet. Edward Reeves in "Brown Men and Women" makes clear that what attracts the American market may not serve that purpose in the islands of the south seas. He tells an experience which a food firm had with one of those sea-girt communities. The natives get very tired of fish, but are fond of canned meat, which they buy whenever they have money. That they are nothing more than children in their ideas the traders find out to their cost if they are not careful. An exporter of canned meat was nearly ruined by clinging to the trademark of a dragon on his head. Shipment after shipment was sent out from San Francisco, each can branded with the flaming dragon. The natives shuddered at the sight of the hideous thing. They were not going to eat the disgusting beast. In vain the agents tore off the labels; the natives were suspicious and would not buy. The whole shipment had to be returned and put in fresh cans with a fat ox or sheep on the label. All the natives fully believed that the figure on the label was a true picture of what was inside.

Persuasion.

Dr. A. is a specialist in nervous ailments. In his most successful cases "persuasion" has played an important role. Six-year-old Frank has evidently had opportunity to imbibe his father's views on the efficacy of persuasion, which, Dr. A. contends, appeals to the highest psychic functions. It was only a few mornings ago that Mrs. A. overheard an altercation in the kitchen between Master Frank and the cook. Mary's voice rose in loud protestations. Mrs. A. hastened to the scene and arrived just in time to see her son seize a convenient broom and threaten Mary. "Why, Frank," she exclaimed in horrified amazement, "what are you doing?" But Frank was equal to the occasion. "I'm just trying to persuade Mary for some angel cake," he explained in a matter of fact way. If this treatment may not have appealed to Mary's highest psychic functions it at any rate tickled her sense of humor. Frank gained his point.—New York Times.

Stone Eaters.

Sir James Ross in the course of his travels noted a curious fact with regard to the penguin—namely, the habit of swallowing stones. In one specimen he found ten pounds weight of quartz, granite and trap. Other animals, reptiles, fishes and mammals exhibit the same strange fancy. In a paper contributed to the proceedings of the Bristol Naturalists' society W. H. Wicks has collected a number of facts connected with such stomach stones. The fact noted by Mr. Wicks that the pebbles are usually white quartz is interesting, but does not appear to throw any light on the strange habit.—London Globe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Darby, of Atlanta, arrived Friday and will be the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Conrad and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Niver, on Orange avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Darby are on their return from a trip to Cuba.

Rebuked. "Guilty or not guilty?" asked a Dutch justice of a prisoner. "Not guilty."

Occupying. Dressing dolls has become the serious business of a great many people, but especially of American men.—Puck.

*A good burglar policy is better than a watchman. He may not see him, but a policy taken out with F. N. Conrad, agent for The Maryland Casualty Company, means money to you whether he is caught or not. 7t

C. A. Stark, of Cincinnati, arrived Thursday and will be in Daytona for about ten days as the guest of Mrs. L. O. Rawson on South Beach street, who is an aunt of Mrs. Stark. Mrs. Stark, who came south with Mrs. Rawson, met Mr. Stark in Jacksonville.

C. R. Simonds, head bookkeeper for the H. & W. B. Drew Co., of Jacksonville, came down from that city Friday night for a few days visit with his mother, Mrs. Nellie Simonds of Orange avenue. Mrs. C. R. Simonds, who has been visiting with relatives at Holly Hill for some days, will accompany Mr. Simonds to Jacksonville on his return to that city Monday.

The exceptionally mild winter is responsible probably for the fact that a number of cases are reported of magnolia trees being in bloom. The buds of this magnificent southern flower seldom open before April at the earliest and coming at this time will give many of our northern visitors an opportunity usually denied them of seeing this beautiful southern blossom.

The "Onawa Second" returned Thursday night from a cruise to Palm Beach and tied up at the South Bridge until the following morning when she departed for Jacksonville by the outside route. As one of her 70-horse power engines was disabled she was accompanied by Capt. A. M. Pellet, aboard the "Truant," to render her assistance in case of need.
